Harrison County Katrina Bonfire Remembrance - The Harrison County Board of Supervisors, along with the mayors of several cities, will hold a bonfire remembrance Saturday. At 8:30 p.m., all 22 of the Harrison County bonfire pits along the beach will be lit in remembrance of Hurricane Katrina. Harrison County Board of Supervisors President, Connie Rockco said, "As the sun set on the destruction heaped upon Harrison County by Hurricane Katrina, Aug. 29, 2005, we were enveloped in total darkness. On Aug. 29, 2015, we will ignite 22 bonfires from Pass Christian to Biloxi that will symbolize our resilient recovery and our faith and hope in a bright future. The public is welcome to come to the beach and participate in this celebration as we move forward together."
